

THE PITT-GREENSBURG THEATRE COMPANY

PRESENTS

THE HOUSE OF BLUE LEAVES

BY JOHN GUARE

This farcical comedy shows us Artie Shaughnessy, an ambitious and frustrated songwriter who feels caged by his crazy wife, Bananas, and his lack of success as a performer. But now things can change: all the animals at the Zoo are poised to give birth, the Pope is coming to New York, and Artie's girlfriend, Bunny (who won't cook for him until they are married) is encouraging him to get back in touch with his old friend, the Hollywood producer, gain the world's attention and embrace success—leaving this zoo-like life behind.

NOVEMBER 15-17, 2007 AT 7:30 PM

IN PITT GREENSBURG'S FERGUSON THEATER

TICKETS (AVAILABLE AT THE DOOR ONLY):
$6 REGULAR, $3 STUDENTS/SENIORS, &
$1 FOR PITT STUDENTS, FACULTY, AND STAFF WITH CURRENT ID.

FOR MORE INFO, CONTACT
DIRECTOR STEPHEN SCHRUM AT
724-836-
7483/SAS114@PITT.EDU