

DISCOVER YOURSELF/ DISCOVER YOUR WORLD

The Pitt Greensburg Theatre Company
Presents the Spring Theatre Production

Molière's Neoclassic farce/comedy about Harpagon, a miser (believe it or not) who is very protective of his money, and cares less about his children. He arranges unwelcome marriages for his son and daughter, and also finds a match for himself—a young woman whom his son happens to already be in love with! What will that rich man who shows up for Harpagon's daughter think of all this? And what will the miser do when he discovers someone has stolen his precious money box?
